FEATURES OF OUR ALUMINUM PLANTERS

Aluminum planters have the advantage of being available in a large color selection.

The intense heating process of powder-coating enables the color to last for years even while being exposed to harsh weather conditions.

Aluminum planters weigh much less than Corten steel making them a better option for rooftop installations that cannot handle heavy weight.

The aluminum planter is extremely popular among interior and exterior designers, who strategically use the planters to complement entire spaces of design themes.
